Each session, the Association of Part-Time Undergraduate Students (APUS) grants a limited number of bursaries to part-time undergraduate students on all three campuses of the University of Toronto. These bursaries are awarded primarily on the basis of financial need as determined by the Office of Enrolment Services.

- The Office of Enrolment Services evaluates all bursary applications after the deadlines stated above. Submitting your application a few weeks before the deadline does not mean it will be evaluated any earlier.
- Do not submit your application directly to the Office of Enrolment Services.
- Please do not call APUS or the Office of Enrolment Services to inquire on the status of your application. You will receive notification regarding whether you have received a Bursary or not, approximately a month and a half after the deadline. All decisions are final.
